Omer Y.

Senior Product Manager | Product Management, Data Analytics
New York, New York, United States

Summary

I'm a product manager with experience in complex and highly regulated industries such as InsurTech and FinTech. With experience at YC-backed startups, I thrive in fast-paced environments where I can tackle complex challenges head-on with passionate teams.

Currently, at Vouch, I'm:

- Developing products that empower our Insurance Team to create cutting-edge insurance products
- Exploring applications of LLMs in the insurance industry

Beyond work, you'll often find me:

- Experimenting with AI applications (I'm constantly maxing out my Claude credits.)
- Exploring the local food scene (I'm a huge fan of Anthony Bourdain.)
- Working out at my local gym

I'm eager to connect with fellow builders and learners who share my enthusiasm for solving problems -- or finding hidden gems.
